The Columbias and Calumets are running a pretty race in the Ten-Pin League. There was only one change in the standing last week. The poor showing of the Stars in their two games with the Columbias enabled the Oneidas to pull up on even terms with them in the fight for third place honors. The Columbias have won thirty-two and lost eight games, while the Calumets have won thirty and lost ten games. There are still five clubs in the race, but the Columbias are confident that they will finish in front. They have the they will finish in front. There was some complaint in Cincinnati over the "rooting" of the Greater New York bowlers, but it is said that the feeling against them was due to the fact that the crack Cincinnati team was defeated. The visitors will reach here Wednesday morning, and the first games will be played on the Independent Turner alleys that afternoon.

snarkey, a number of clubs are getting ready to bid for the contest. Citizens of Alcova, Wyo., have raised a purse of $20.000 which they will give for the fight. They impose the couldition that both men shall train in that town. Alcova is a health resort, and the citizens of the town are looking for some advertising out of the contest, should they secure it. A plub in Hot Springs, undismayed with the Corbett-Fitzsimmons flasco in that city, has offered a purse for a meeting between the two men. Dan Stuart asserts that he will give a purse of $30,000, and pull off the fight in Carson City. W. A. Brady is willing to take the contest to the Greater New York Athletic Club, and Tom O'Rourke says the Lenox Club will offer as big a purse as any club in the country for the contest.

A ten-round contest will take place tonight in Cincinnati between Patsey Haley and Danny Rewan. Both men are fetherweights, and will scale 115 pounds when they enter the ring. Haley is commer rapidly to the front as a fighter, and says he is anxious for a chance to meet Oscar Gardner.

good-sized purse has been offered in A good-sized purse has been offered in Chicago for a six-round contest between James J. Corbett and Joe Choynski. The latter is willing to fight the Californian, but Corbett is hesitating about making the match. If he should be defeated by Choynski, who has always been regarded a second-rater, it would put him out of the business forever; while, should Fitz-simmons or Jeffries defeat him, he would still have a chance to make an occasional match. It is a great effort now for Corbett to get ready for a fight, as he is not the man physically that he was eight years ago.

L. A. W. ASSEMBLY.

Boston Decided on as Place of Next Meet-Folts's Candidacy.

The delegates to the L. A. W. assembly which meets in Providence, R. I., next week, have taken a mail vote to decide the place of holding the next national meet, and selected Boston by a vote of 150 to 90. Buffalo was the other city that was trying to secure the meet. When the wheelmen were here last August, the Buffalo committee made a prominent showing, and kept open house at the Denison House during the week. When the wheelmen were here last August, the Buffalo committee made a prominent showing, and kept open house at the Dentson House during the week. The Boston York, have been notified.

SHOWINGS OF THE BOWLERS committee meanwhile worked quietly among the representative wheelmen, and made friends in every division that had men here. Last fall the Boston committee began an aggressive campaign, while the Buffalo men rested on their showing made at Indianapolis. A month ago they practically gave up the fight, and Boston fractically gave up the fight, and Boston had an easy time in securing the meet. The indiana representatives—Wallace Sherwood, James A. Allison and Herbert Foltz—who will attend the assembly in Providence next week, will leave here Monday. Indiana wheelmen are interested in the meeting of delegates from the fact that Mr. Foltz will probably be elected first vice-president of the league, and will then be line for the presidency a year later. He is a candidate on the Keenan ticket, and it is believed will be elected without opposition. As a member of the racing board, Mr. Foltz earned the reputation of being Chairman Mott's most capable and energetic assistant, and while he gained the enmity of some of the racing men, hedid more to purify bicycle racing in the Central and Southern States than any other man who ever held the position. Wallace Sherwood, of this city, has had charge of the Keenan campaign, and the Indiana representatives will have more power in the assembly this year than the delegates from any other State.

Baseball Notes.

Some Chicago baseball cranks do not look with favor on the Dahlen-Demontre-ville trade. They believe that Dahlen is much the better player, and think that President Hart traded him to Baltimore because of personal reasons, and that he sacrificed the playing strength of the club to gratiry a spite against the player. Many of the National League players say they will not sign the Brush agreement this season, and it is not proble that they will be asked to do so. The Brush resolution will come up for consideration at the schedule meeting, February 28. It is believed that it will be continued in force as the majority of the magnates feel that it did the game much good last season.

George W. Howe, of Cleveland, is trying George W. Howe, of Cleveland, is trying to secure the Cléveland franchise in case the Cleveland team goes to St. Louis. Mr. Howe is willing to put a club in that city either in the National or Western League. While he does not expect to have a winner in the big league, he thinks the cranks will rally to his support on account of his former popularity as a baseball magnate.

The Cincinnati base ball contracts this year all have a drinking clause inserted in them. A portion of the player's salary will be withheld each month and given him at the end of the season if his habits have been good. This will enable some of the players who usually spend their money faster than they make it, to have something with which to tide them over the winter months.

He will present this evening "The King's Musketeers," a new version by Harry Hamilton of Dumas's novel. "The Three Musketeers." Goodwin Will Fight It.

Chicago, January 30.—A motion for a new trial in the case of John Maxwell against Nat Goodwin was entered by attorney Lowery, for the defendant, in Judge Seaman's court, at Chicago, Saturday. Attorney Reed, the other counsel for the defense, is now on his way to France, and the Court said he would not set the time for the hearing of the motion set the time for the hearing of the motion until Mr. Reed's return.

A Burns Entertainment. A Scotch Burns entertainment will be given at the Universalist church, at New Jersey and Fifteenth streets, Wednesday atternoon and evening. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock, and the entertainment will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Crosby, pastor of the church, will have charge of the program. He spent three years in Scotland, and is fa-miliar with Burns's home 'ife, as he learned of it at the birthplace of the poet. There will be readings, songs and stereop-ticon views of Scotch scenery.

Mr. Forsyth on German Art. William Forsyth lectured at the Ger-nan House, last night, on "Art." The man House, last night, on "Art." The discussion was principally on German art. At no time since the Renaissance, he said, has German art wielded so great an influence. Its spirit has been active, intelligent and promising. A greater awakening has become noticeable in the last few years—an indication that art is seeking the homes of the people. This means, he said, that art has reached a high level and promises a glorious future.

Young Men's Christian Association William H. Brown, formerly president of the Young Men's Christian Associa-tion, will receive the Bible classes of the association at his home, 1317 Park avenue, this evening. A special literary and social program will be given. On the afternoon of January 31 the junior department will hold its regular monthly social.
